FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

To make the planning process a breeze...

Q: How many weddings do you hold at Seaham Hall per day?

A: We'll never hold more than one wedding per day.

Q: How long can you provisionally hold a date and how much is the deposit?

A: We will provisionally hold your date for 2 weeks, after which we will ask for a £1,500 deposit to confirm your wedding.

Q: How do I book my Civil Ceremony?

A: You will need to contact the Durham County Registrar to book your Ceremony.

Their contact number is 03000 266000.

Q: How many bedrooms are included for my wedding guests?

A: If you have booked our Exclusive Package, you will receive all 21 of our suites, including the Penthouse for the Newlyweds.

If you have booked our Lovelace Package, you will receive 5 suites and the Lovelace Suite for the Newlyweds.

We are unable to guarantee the availability and pricing of any suites further than the 6 included in your package.

Q: Do you allow fireworks?

A: Yes, you are welcome to provide fireworks for your big day. Please ask your Wedding Co-ordinator for more details.

Q: Do I have to book certain suppliers?

A: Apart from chair covers which we provide for you, you can hire any supplier you wish. Please ensure they have the proper licensing and public liability insurance prior to booking them and ask us about our recommended suppliers.

Q: When do I meet with my Wedding Co-ordinator and when do I need to make payments?

A:

1 year before your wedding, we will require a 25% payment. Enjoy Afternoon Tea for 2 while you're here, on us.

6 months prior to your wedding, we will have our first planning meeting to run through the details of your day, host your menu tasting, and a 50% payment is due. Why not stay over for the night at a discounted rate?

1 month before your wedding, your final guest numbers, menu choices, and final payment is due. The perfect opportunity to relax and indulge in a spa day!
